

What We Do

Grace and Glory Academy is a Charlotte Mason style educational program and private school for hybrid, home-educating families. Our school is based on the foundation of a Biblical worldview. We exist to....

- Serve home-educating families
- Provide unique experiences and support
- Assist you on your educational journey

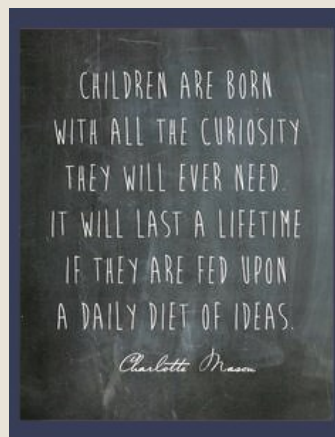

Our Background

Michaela and Brad Roekle are the administrators and founders of the school. Michaela grew up being home schooled from first grade through graduation, and has a passion for the home education movement... To learn more about our family and our story, visit the Grace and Glory website.
